He said he received letters from he postmarked Lynchburg and had an idea she was staying in Bedford City, but this was not definitely established in his mind. Once since June she returned home and stayed there six days while he was sick, said Ford, and another time she called him by telephone to meet her in Lynch burg. There, he testified, he pleaded with her to return home, but she said they could not get along and she did not love him. Ford then stated that he saw her no more until Saturday morning when he was driving by the Strother home to his work and saw her face at one of the windows.

He drove on to his work, he said but turned around immediately and hurried to Lynchburg, where he bought an automatic pistol. turning to Boonsboro, he saw Dr leaving his automobile go into his house. Ford testified that he went into the yard and asked where Mrs. Ford was. Without waiting for an answer, he said, he charged Dr. Strother with doing him the dirtiest trick a white man
